RE: 13-3253 United States v. Fred Robinson

Dear Counsel:

The consent motion for leave to file a brief as amicus curiae in support of the Appellant filed by the American Civil Liberties Union and the American Civil Liberties Union of Missouri has been granted and the brief of amicus curiae was filed on February 20, 2014. If you have not already done so, please complete and file an Appearance form. You can access the Appearance Form at www.ca8.uscourts.gov/all-forms.

Please note that Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 29(g) provides that an amicus may only present oral argument by leave of court. If you wish to present oral argument, you need to submit a motion. Please note that if permission to present oral argument is granted, the court's usual practice is that the time granted to the amicus will be deducted from the time allotted to the party the amicus supports. You may wish to discuss this with the other attorneys before you submit your motion.
